TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL

THE TRINHIAN 1951

Presented by-
The Senior Class of Trinity High School
Trinity, North Carolina

Foreword

We realize that some of our happiest moments and valued experiences have come to pass in this, our senior year at Trinity High School. Through these pages of the Trinhian we have attempted to portray some phases of our school life and have stored within the pictures of our classmates as we remember them. We hope that they will have a special significance for you in future years.

We wish to express our gratitude to each who has had a part in making possible the publication of this yearbook.

Co-editors
Betty Jo and Shirley

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1951, wish to dedicate this edition of the Trinhian to an alumnus of our school, Mr. Sidney Uuderwood, for his willingness to help when called upon and his genuine interest in all the students.

Class History

In August, 1947, a group of excited girls and boys entered school, like other girls and boys. But to them it was something different. It was an outstanding day in their lives – this was their first day of school! A day long looked forward to! This was the beginning of our high school days – the Class of '51.

We had two excellent teachers this year: Mr. E. W. Welborn and Mr. Sidney Underwood. In the two classes Elliot Byrd and J. C. Simmons were elected president. In December, our class had a Christmas party in the Home Economics Building. Our first year ended and we were Sophomores.

In our sophomore year, we didn't feel as small and unimportant, since we weren't the "babies" anymore. Our homeroom teachers were Miss Davis and Mrs. Fulp. The presidents were: Harold Kinney and Elliot Byrd. In the spring, our rooms had a contest selling magazines, to increase our treasury. Miss Davis' room won and Mrs. Fulp's room entertained with a wiener roast and hayride. The most exciting occassion was the ordering of class rings.

As Juniors, we felt older and more dignified. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Rothrock and Mrs. Kelly. We chose the following class officers: President, Bobby Fulp; Vice-President, Harold Kinney; Secretary, Edna Farlow; and Treasurer, Margie Wall. On September 29, seventeen of the juniors were tapped and taken into the Beta Club. One October 28, everyone was excited, because our class rings had come. We operated the Book Store, to make money. Our class had a Christmas party at the Home Economics Building in December. In January, the Junior Marshals were taken in, in an impressive ceremony. The most important and unforgettable occasion of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Banquet, held on the Balinese Roof Garden, Hotel Robert E. Lee, in Winston-Salem. On May 20, our Junior play, "A Case of Springtime", was presented, with Mrs. Rothrock as director. On May 25, we closed our Junior Year, with it's happy memories, looking forward to becoming dignified Seniors.

Seniors at last! The time we had for so long awaited. On September 3, 1950, 48 young men and women entered the Senior Class, with Mrs. Peace as their teacher. Our officers were: President, Harold Kinney; Vice-President, Donald Hancock; Secretary, Edna Farlow; Treasurer, Margie Wall; Room Manager, Doris Hurlocker; Devotional Chairman, Louise Farlow; Bulletin Board Chairman, Phyllis Hill; and Patrol Chairman, Lewis Stroud. On September 29, four of our Seniors were taken into the Beta Club. In the King and Queen Contest at the Fall Festival, the Seniors had their King and Queen, Belva Frazier and Donald Hancock, as Winners. During the year, we sold flavoring and stationery to increase our treasury. On October 25, our class visited the Morehead Planitarium at Chapel Hill. Our Good Citizen to be represented in the Alexander Martin Chapter of the D.A.R. was Edna Farlow, who deserved the title very much. On October 30, we chose our superlatives. December the 20, Mrs. Peace gave a Christmas party in the Home Economics Building. The Senior Betas enjoyed the State Beta Convention which was held in Ashville on April 20 and 21. On May 3, bright and early, a group of happy Seniors left for a tour of our Nations Capitol in Washington, D.C. We had a wonderful time arriving home Sunday night May 6.

Our class colors are Maroon and White; class flower, White Rose; Motto, "Take the World as You Find it, but Leave it Better", and Mascots are: Carla Croker and Jimmy Hill. As we look forward to our commencement, we are anticipating with joy, and are full of life and vigor as we leave our footprints and go from our dear Alma Mater to our place in life.

The 1950 football team wound up with a fairly successful season, with three wins, three losses, and three ties. Although the team was riddled with injuries, and suffered loses of players at different times, they fought hard and played well. The main attraction of the season was when the "Bulldogs" defeated Guilford, the North Piedmont Conference Champs, 7-0. The Co-Captains this year were Jack Stilley and Bobby Fulp, and serving as alternate Co-Captains were Charles Gregory and Duane Smith. Here's wishing the best of luck to next years team although they are losing eight players this year.

SECOND ROW: Pat Lohr, Betty Loflin, Lorene Collins, Gladis Seward, Joanne Croker, Dorothy Frazier. THIRD ROW: Roberta Hill, Betty Cumby, Julia Smith. Jeanette Hill, Gloria Marsh, Peggy Skeene. After a hard fought battle the 1949-50 team won the Randolph County Tournament, and the North Piedmont Conference. Losing no players last year, our girls' team has improved, and has won every game up to this date. The long awaited game with Allen Jay finally came and Trinity won very easily. Girls we wish you much success the rest of the year!

Again for the fifth year in succession, the team won the title of County Champs, and last year reached the finals in the North Piedmont Conference. Although several graduated, the 1950-51 season started with a bang. They have been very successful this season, losing no games up to date. We hope they continue with their winning streak.

CO-VALEDICTORIANS
Betty Jo Davis
Shirley Swiggett

Betty Jo and Shirley have been close friends all through high school, and have always made almost identical grades. When they were Juniors, they were Co-chief Marshals, and this year they were chosen Co-Editors of the annual. Then when the final selection of Seniors came, they were chosen Co-Valedictorians based strictly on scholastic standing, each having an average of better than 96.

Louise, our Salutatorian, is a studious girl and is noted for the quiet dignity which she possesses. She has made excellent grades all through high school and throughly deserves this honor.
